2020 – Calculus BC Summer Assignment:

   a) If you know how to do a problem, great do the problem you'll get feedback at the end of each problem.
   b) If you don’t know how to do the problem, view the hints and take notes on the feedback you are given so you can use it on your retake.
   c) When you finish take a screen shot of your results. It should look something like this:

![Image of Khan Academy course challenge results]

2. Use the skill level changes information on the right to practice skills that were went down or were low, taking notes of problems where you used hints.

3. Retake the course challenge 1 time minimum and take a new screen shot of your performance. Your goal is to show improvement from the first time to the second time. Be ready to turn in your notes in the fall showing the work you did learning from hints etc.