

A Learning Experience that Changed Me:
Studying abroad in the London and Ghana opened my eyes to the many different incredible cultures throughout the world. While studying ethnomusicology in the UK and Africa, I learned how important it is for every young person to become immersed in other cultures, histories, and perspectives.
My Favorite Book:
People's History of the United States, Howard Zinn
My Hobbies and Interests:
Jazz piano and Hiking
Prior Experience in Education:
In 2014-15 I taught an American History Seminar on racial and economic inequalities at Hunter College. I had the pleasure of teaching a 10th grade global teacher at Harlem Children's Zone in Harlem, NY.
Something Super-Unique About Me:
I grew up on a Navajo Reservation in Chinle, Arizona
Why I am Excited About Working at DSST:
I love this very special and inspiring Falcon Community!
